News of the DCGS

October

Highlights from the DCGS Board Meeting

The Defiance Public Library has notified the board of their form for accepting items from the public/other institutions. A thank-you was received from the Defiance Public Library for our reprinting of two documents and the donation of other items. Cecelia will meet with the new adult services head to answer questions we have and to see what we can offer the library. Due to a lack of interest, the October help session at the Defiance Library was cancelled. We will try another date in the spring.

There were problems sending out the last newsletter as 13 with good addresses came back. Second and third tries were done via Yahoo and then most of the rest went through using the Sherwood telephone site. Members are urged to contact Mary Williams, editor of the newsletter, if an issue has not been received. Generally newsletters will come out around March 15, June 15, September 1, and January 15.

The board will extend invitations to the four 4-H students who had taken genealogy projects to join the chapter free of charge. They will also be encouraged to attend the spring genealogy help session.

Highlights from the DCGS Chapter Meeting

Nineteen members and guests attended the 2014 banquet. Inducted into First Families of Defiance county were Lura Jeffrey, Donna Smith, Dawn Hasch, and Sharon Smith. Each of the inductees provided highlights of their families. One of Lura Jeffrey's Defiance County ancestors was Peter Dickman who was an early blacksmith in Brunersburg. Dawn Hasch's German immigrant to Defiance County, Jacob Wolfrum, was a shoemaker who lived next door to Peter Dickman in Brunersburg. Donna Smith read a newspaper account of her early ancestor, Catherine Ridenour, which detailed the loneliness and hardships that the early women settlers faced. Sharon Dey Smith told of some of the early Dey family in America. Her Defiance County ancestor was Samuel Dey who came to Brunersburg in 1855. Dey Road and Dey Bridge, which has been placed on the National Register of Historical Places, were named after this ancestor family.

Following the inductions, membership chair, Dianne Kline, showed three large portraits which have been given to the chapter of the Stork, Wiler, and Parmer families of Defiance County. Dianne gave brief bios of the individuals with the hope that someone of the families might claim the photographs.

A moment of silence was held to honor member Pat Rashley who had passed away in the last year.

November

Highlights from the DCGS Chapter Meeting

Twenty-two members and guests were present for the November 24 chapter meeting. Pat Wise moved that our chapter pledge an additional $400 toward a second microfilm reader at the Defiance Public Library. Marilyn Mallott seconded the motion which then passed. There is now $1000 designated for a second reader.

Bob Bower questioned whether the chapter might make some of its publications available in CD format or whether they might be downloaded from our web site. President Brown noted that it would be discussed at a board meeting.

Following the business meeting, chapter members Dan Hasch and Mary Williams presented the program, Sherwood Spiritualism Revisited. Spiritualism is the belief that the deceased can be contacted through trained mediums. In the U. S. the movement gained momentum when the Fox sisters of New York began traveling across the country. The movement came to the Defiance area when Thomas Wentworth brought the belief to the Hicksville area in the late 1800s.

In 1907 thirty acres in the eastern part of the village of Sherwood was purchased. In 1910 an auditorium was built, and spiritualist speakers were brought in as far as the East Coast with programs including séances and healing sessions. The name Crystal Fountain was derived from the sulfur fountain on the premises which supposedly had healing waters.

Later the auditorium was also available for use by the public for dances and even later for skating. A swimming pool was built and made available for the public to use. Also on the acreage was a home for the president, a dormitory and a few cottages.

The movement came to an end in Sherwood when the acreage and buildings were sold to the village for one dollar in 1994.

Death of Notable Pioneer- Lyman Langdon

Good, Old Man of Noble Township Ends His Race

Article from an early Defiance newspaper)

Lyman Langdon, one of the most notable pioneers of the Maumee Valley died at his some in Noble Township at midnight Sunday, August 19, 1900. HE was born at South Canton, St. Lawrence County, New York, on September 19, 1809, and lacked just 20 days from being 91 years old when he passed away.

At the age of 29 Lyman married Fannie Marie Sanford. Ten children resulted from that Union. Those living are Lucia A. Langdon of Noble Township, Mrs. Adeline Breidenbaugh of Toledo, Emma B. Sheffield of Noble Township, Almira Sisco of Kansas, and Grace E. Reid of Van Wert.

In 1835 Mr. Langdon came to Ohio, driving through from Cleveland in a wagon and settling in what was then Williams County. He passed through this city [Defiance] which was then a town of 150 people. He found acquaintances from St. Lawrence County already living here as follows: J. W. Moore, Erskine Perkins, Edwin Phellps, Wm A. Brown, Amos Stoddard, and other friends. He located land with Dr. Oney Rice and Jacob Conkey near Farmer Center. On Sept. 16, 1836 he sold his possessions in New York and with his wife and one child drove through Ohio in a wagon, accompanied by his wife's brother, Seneca E. Sanford. He reached this city after being on the road 22 days.

On January 25, 1837, he rented Payne C. Parker's hotel at Georgetown [now Ney] and it has become one of the most notable places on northwestern Ohio. That same year he and Horatio G. Phillips bought four lots on Clinton Street from Gen. John G. Hunt for $3,000 between First and Front Streets.

In 1838 Lyman resided in Defiance and was elected justice of the peace, and he also was appointed county judge replacing Bishop Adams, who had moved to Henry County.

Late in 1841, after the canal had been completed, he sold his property here to Samuel Rohn and C. I. Trude and bought the fame in Noble Township from Addison Goodyear. He moved there in April 1842 and remained there until his death.

After the formation of Defiance County [1845], and in 1849 he went into the retail business with Horace Hilton at the north end of the Maumee River bridge. He purchased an acre of land and built a home where the Joseph Ralston home stood in the early 1900s.

Lyman sold his interest in the store to Mr. Hilton in 1851 and moved back to his farm in Noble Township where he built a home in 1852. He also kept a tavern this place.

On Sept. 18, 1862 Mr. and Mrs. Langdon celebrated their golden anniversary. Lyman was a man of broad views, keen perception, strict integrity, and while frugal and simple in his habits, was the soul of hospitality. HE had a wide acquaintance and his knowledge of the early settlement of the Maumee Valley was not exceeded by any living soul. He was a grand old man and while the news of his death will be received with regrets by his friends everywhere, his noble life and deeds will stand as an imperishable monument of his goodness.

The funeral was held at the Langdon home in Noble Township with Rev. Jacobs officiating. The remains were interred in Riverside Cemetery.

Defiance Motor Trucks to Pass Down the Streets of Dear Old Shanghai China

Defiance Democrat - December 5, 1918

The Turnbull Motor Truck & Wagon Co. has received an order for ten motor trucks for delivery to Shanghai China and also for delivery of ten trucks to Halifax, Nova Scotia. The local plant will also ship a truck this week to Porto Rico.

This Defiance factory is shipping out trucks every day. Trucks are being shipped to Chicago and Milwaukee this week.

Officers at the plant say that the export prospects and that present indications are that Defiance motor trucks will probably be going to all parts of the world.

Health Board Issues Order Closing Schools, Theatres, etc., Because of Inflluenza

Defiance Democrat - October 10, 1918

Notice is hereby given that by an order of the Board of Health of the City of Defiance, that all schools, theatres, moving picture shows, dance halls, and all places of public entertainment where large number of people congregate, shall be closed until further notice by the Board of Health.

This order is issued by reason of the unusual prevalence of the disease known as "Spanish Influenza" in the city of Defiance and the surrounding country. A mild form of this epidemic has existed up to the present time, only one death having occurred; however, there are quite a large number of cases in the city.

It is not the intention of the Board to close the church of the city at this time, but such as action my become necessary after the meeting of the State Board of Health in Columbus which will be held on the 10th day of October. [Later the churches were closed.]

People should try to cooperate with the Board of Health in preventing the disease from spreading by avoiding public gatherings.

The most dangerous form of human contact in the presence of epidemic influenza is, in all probability, that with coughers and sneezers. Coughing and Sneezing, except behind a handkerchief, is as great a sanitary offense as promiscuous spitting and should be equally condemned.

J. D. Westrick, Health Officer

The Great Flu Pandemic 1918-1919

http://www.flu.gov/
http://www.ohiohistorycentral.org/

"Officials in Ohio were overwhelmed by the pandemic. The state finally managed to file its first report on October 26, 1918. In this report, they indicated that there were at least 125,000 cases in the state on October 18th. The disease had undoubtedly been prevalent in the state for some time before that date. During the week of October 26th, there were 1,541 deaths from influenza alone. Because officials had a difficult time collecting data, these figures were probably inaccurate. It seems likely that the real number of cases and deaths was much higher.

"Cleveland was especially hard hit by the pandemic. During the first weeks of the pandemic, the state reported roughly 168 deaths from influenza per week. By the third week of the pandemic, the city's death rate had soared, with 682 deaths from influenza being reported each week. Dayton suffered greatly from the pandemic as well, with a high of 137 deaths registered there during the third week of the pandemic. By late October, Cincinnati was under siege as well, reporting 22,000 cases of influenza."

"In Ohio, Camp Sherman was affected more by the epidemic than any other training camp in the nation. The disease swept through the camp in the late summer and early fall. Almost twelve hundred men died at Camp Sherman before the epidemic ended."

Henry and Kate Kurso (Spelling may differ.) and the two children they adopted, Estella and Clyde, are picured below. The pictures were taken in Defiance, Ohio, and were in the Baker family album that Phyllis Toler has. She believes the date would be around 1891. She would like any information on this family. Phyllis is researching the Clemens family from the Defiance area (See the page 50.)as well as her Baker family (See page 49). If you have any information, please use the chapter email or postal box, and the information will be forwrded to her.
